Governor Musgrove Issues Proclamation, Executive Order In Observance of September 11

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has issued a proclamation calling on all Mississippians to mark the one-year anniversary of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. In the proclamation, Musgrove calls for people across the state to fly American flags at their homes and businesses, and to observe a moment of silence at 7:46 a.m. – the precise moment the first plane struck the north tower of the World Trade Center in New York.

“Our state and our nation were deeply affected by the attacks of September 11, and it is important for us to remember and reflect on how our world has changed since then,” Musgrove said.

Musgrove also issued an executive order ordering all state and American flags on state property to be flown at half-staff on September 11.

The official state observance of the September 11 attacks will take place at 1:30 p.m. at the Veterans Memorial next to the Woolfolk State Office Building in Jackson.
